1. Graduate School of Fine Arts admissions policy

The Graduate School of Fine Arts has produced leading artists, researchers, and educators in each period in every field of artistic endeavor.

The Graduate School seeks to impart to students the creativity established through years of its traditions, thereby preparing them to serve as professionals of keen originality capable of assuming leading roles in this time of change. It is our hope that students studying in the Graduate School will master the techniques and knowledge accumulated in its history and to improve and build on them to contribute broadly to world culture and society.

Based on this educational philosophy, the Graduate School seeks applicants with the capacity to enrich the world of art based on a cosmopolitan perspective and thoroughgoing, independent-minded study.

3. Eligibility to apply

Applicants to the Graduate School of Fine Arts (MFA Program) must meet one of the following requirements:

1. Has graduated (or is expected to graduate before entering the Graduate School) from a university in Japan, as stipulated in Article 83 of the School Education Act (Act No. 26 of 1947).
2. Possesses a bachelor's degree (or expects to obtain such degree before entering the Graduate School) as stipulated in Article 104, Paragraph 4 (National Institution for Academic Degrees and University Evaluation) of the School Education Act (Act No. 26 of 1947).
3. Has completed (or expects to complete before entering the Graduate School) a 16-year program of school education in a foreign country.
4. Has completed (or expects to complete before entering the Graduate School) in Japan a 16-year program of school education through a distance-learning course offered by a foreign school.
5. Has completed (or expects to complete before entering the Graduate School) in Japan a foreign university program specified separately by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan and offered by an educational facility operated as part of the educational system of the foreign country in question (subject to the condition that students completing such program are considered to have completed a 16-year program of school education in the foreign country in question).
6. Has completed, on or after the date specified by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan, a specialized program at an advanced vocational school, which is specified separately by the Minister (subject to the condition that the program requires at least four years to complete and satisfies other criteria specified by the Minister).
7. Other persons deemed eligible by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan
8. Applications aged 22 or older who do not meet any of the categories under paragraphs 1 - 7 above but recognized based on an individual screening for eligibility for admission by the Graduate School to possess academic ability at least equal to university graduates.

Note: If you do not fall into any of the categories under paragraphs 1 - 7 above but wish to apply under the qualifications described under paragraph 8 above, you must undergo screening for eligibility for admission in advance. Contact the Educational Affairs Section of the Faculty of Fine Arts to request application documents, then submit the required documents as specified by the Graduate School of Fine Arts by registered mail no later than the specified deadline (March 9, 2016).
 Receipt of the application and other documents submitted will be placed on hold until completion of the screening. You will be notified directly of the screening results.
 If recognized as eligible to apply, you must pay the screening fee by the deadline specified by the Graduate School.

6. Application procedures

1) Application period

Monday, March 7 – Friday, March 11, 2016

Applications must be submitted by mail and arrive to school during the above period.
 Note: Applications will not be accepted if they arrive later than the above period or if delivered to the University in person.

2) Submitting your application

Attach the Entrance Screening Fee Remittance Proof Form (Form C) to the documents attached to this guidance as specified by the University and send by registered express mail during the application period indicated.

(1) Screening fee

① Amount: 36,000 yen

No screening fee is required from Japanese government-funded international students. If you are a Japanese government-funded international student, submit a Certificate of Attendance Under the Japanese Government Scholarship for Foreign Students issued by your university.

[Screening fee waiver system]

We will waive screening fees for applicants affected by the Great East Japan Earthquake of March 11, 2011. Applicants wishing to apply for the waiver must submit the Screening Fee Waiver Application Form before submitting their application. You are not required to remit the screening fee until a decision is made concerning your waiver application. For details of the waiver application period and related matters, check the University's website. The application form must be submitted by Thursday, March 10, 2016.

② Remittance period: Monday, March 7, 2016 – Friday, March 11, 2016

③ Remittance method and documents to be submitted

Transfer the fee by method (a) or (b) described below.

(a) Remittance at a financial institution counter

- Use the remittance request forms (Forms A, B, C) attached to this guidance.
- Fees can be transferred at the following financial institutions:
City banks, trust banks, regional banks, shinkin banks, credit cooperatives, agricultural cooperatives, Japan Post Bank (post offices), and similar institutions
- * You cannot transfer fees at finance corporations.
- * If you transfer the fee at the Japan Post Bank (i.e., at a post office), you must do so from a Japan Post Bank account. Ask the staff at the post office where you plan to transfer the fee for details of the procedures.
- A separate transfer charge must be paid.
(However, no charge is required for transfers made from the head office or branches of Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation.)
- We do not accept remittances from financial institution ATMs.
- Once you have transferred the fee, Forms B and C will be returned to you. Tear off Form C and submit by attaching it to the Entrance Screening Fee Remittance Proof Submission Form.

(b) Remittance of the screening fee from overseas

- Do the following to transfer the fee from overseas:
- Prepare the 36,000 yen screening fee, the remittance charge charged in your country (you are responsible for determining the charge when making the remittance), 4,000 yen as the handling charge in Japan.
- Indicate that you will assume responsibility for ALL charges. If you fail to do this, we will only receive the balance remaining after the charges have been deducted; in short, we will not receive the full screening fee and will be unable to process your application.

- Once you have transferred the fee, submit a copy of the foreign remittance request form (featuring the seal or signature of the bank clerk handling the remittance) by attaching it to the Entrance Screening Fee Remittance Proof Submission Form, together with other necessary documents.

④ Refunds

After we receive your application form, we will not return the screening fee transferred for any reason other than (a) or (b) below:

- (a) The screening fee was transferred, but the application form was not submitted or we did not receive it.
- (b) The screening fee was transferred twice in error.

In either case (a) or (b) above, request a refund as follows:

Use a sheet of letter paper or similar to prepare a screening fee refund request. The request should include the information under ① through ⑦ below. Attach the proof of payment or Form C to the request and mail it to the Accounting Section of the Strategic Planning Division, the Tokyo University of the Arts (12-8 Ueno Koen, Taito-ku, Tokyo 110-8714).

① Name, ② address, ③ telephone number, ④ the major and research field you would like to apply for, ⑤ amount of money, ⑥ reason for making the refund request, ⑦ details of the bank account into which you wish the refund to be paid (name of bank, name of branch, whether the account is an ordinary deposit account or current account, name of account holder [in katakana], and account number)

- * Remittance charges will be deducted from the amount returned to the applicant.
- * Remittance of refunds normally takes about one month following receipt of the refund request form.
- * If you do not have your own bank account and wish to have the refund paid into an account held by a parent, guardian, etc., send a power of attorney indicating this along with the refund request form.

Enclose the above documents ((A) - (E)) in a A4-sized envelope (240x332 mm) and submit to the University by express registered mail during the application period (The application must arrive to school by Friday, March 11). Please put "Application for GAP enclosed" clearly on the envelope.

Note: Application documents cannot be revised for any reason after receipt.

Documents to submit

In addition to the documents to submit ((A) - (E)) above, submit documents (F) and (G) below.

(F) Letters of recommendation from three persons

(G) Certificate of English language ability (from exam taken on or after October 1, 2014)

* If English is not your native language, submit certified scores from one of the following exams: TOEFL (iBT), TOEIC (TOEIC), or IELTS (Academic Module)

7. Examination card

Examination cards will be handed to applications who have submitted all the necessary documents and completed the above application procedures on the day of examination on Thursday, March 17. The Educational Affairs Section will inform the examination number prior to the examination by email or phone.

Consultation for applicants with disabilities

Applicants requiring special treatment in the examinations or special consideration during their studies at the Graduate School should consult with the Educational Affairs Section of the Faculty of Fine Arts promptly.

Prepare a written document (any format) indicating the major and research field you are applying for, the type and degree of the disability, special treatment required in examinations or special consideration required during studies, and other relevant information. Submit this document accompanied by a doctor's opinion or disability certificate (copy) by registered mail by Monday, November 2, 2015.

Applicants who begin requiring special treatment after the deadline for application due to injury in an accident or for other reasons should promptly consult with the Educational Affairs Section of the Faculty of Fine Arts.

Note: Please consult with the Educational Affairs Section as soon as possible. It may take some time (1 - 2 months) to respond to your request.

8. Submitting your portfolio and other materials

Submit your portfolio and other materials as outlined below.

1. See "Screening examination content and methods" on page 8 concerning content, standards, and other details of the portfolio and other materials to be submitted.
2. When submitting these materials, attach the Portfolio Submission Form (for Attachment) to each work and other materials submitted and submit the Portfolio Submission Form (for Submission) to the specified section. (Enclose the Portfolio Submission Form [for Submission] if sending materials by mail.)
 - * The Portfolio Submission Form is used mainly to certify that the portfolio belongs to an examinee and to prevent cases of mistaken attribution or identity. If you are unable to obtain certification from your faculty advisor in the space for certification, obtain certification from another party not related to you. In addition, attach one sheet to each item in the portfolio unless there are specific reasons for not doing so.
3. Once submitted, portfolios and other materials will not be returned.

Research field	Date, time, and location of submission	Return
Global Art Practice	Monday, March 7 – 12:00 (noon) Monday, March 14 Send by registered mail with "GAP Portfolio Enclosed" written on the envelope in red ink. The portfolio will not be accepted if brought to the University in person. * Follow the instructions on page 8 for your portfolio. Submit to: Educational Affairs Section, Faculty of Fine Arts, Tokyo University of the Arts 12-8 Ueno Koen, Taito-ku, Tokyo 110-8714	Note that the portfolio and other materials submitted will not be returned.

9. Screening examination content, date, and time

We decide whether to admit a student based on comprehensive evaluations that include assessments of academic abilities by the Graduate School (including technical examinations and oral examinations), an interview, and review of documents, essays, and a portfolio submitted by the applicant.

Applicants who fail to complete or submit even one of the assigned examinations (including submission of a portfolio and other materials) will be ruled ineligible for admission. Note that screening fees will not be returned (even if the applicant shows up for the examination on the wrong date).

Use of mobile phones and other electronic devices with photographic and communication functions is prohibited on campus. Such items will be held for you by the University during the examinations.

 ③ The transfer will be made on Friday, May 27 for the first semester, and on Monday, November 28 for the second semester of the first year.

(2) Materials fee (estimated amount at time of admission): 300,000 yen

* The above amount is not an annual fee. It covers the entire period of the Master's Degree program.

13. Disclosure of information on entrance examinations

Individual results of screening and entrance examinations for the Graduate School of Fine Arts (MFA Program) will be disclosed only as requested by the examinee him- or herself.

Provided below is an outline of the application procedure and related information.

1. How to apply

- Applying in person

After the examinee him or herself has completed all blanks on the Request for Release/Notice of Entrance Examination Results appended to this guidance, bring the form together with the University's examination card (photocopies not accepted; however, current students at the University may submit photocopies of their student ID cards) and a return envelope (type no. 3 long envelope [12 cm x 23.5 cm], with the name, address, and postal code of the examinee and 392 yen in postage affixed) to the Educational Affairs Section of the Faculty of Fine Arts to apply for disclosure of the information. (The results will be sent at a later date by simple registered mail.)

○ Applying by mail

If you cannot apply in person because you live far from the University or for other reasons, you may apply by mail. After the examinee him or herself has completed all blanks on the Request for Release/Notice of Entrance Examination Results appended to this guidance, mail together with the University's examination card (photocopies not accepted; however, current students at the University may submit photocopies of their student ID cards) and a return envelope (type no. 3 long envelope [12 cm x 23.5 cm], with the name, address, and postal code of the examinee and 392 yen in postage affixed) to the Educational Affairs Section, Faculty of Fine Arts, Tokyo University of the Arts, by simple registered mail. Indicate "Request for Release of Results" in red ink on the front of the envelope. (The results will be sent at a later date by simple registered mail.)

2. When to apply

○ If the examinee comes to the University him or herself

Wednesday, June 1 – Thursday, June 30, 2016

9:00 am – 4:30 pm weekdays (closed for lunch 12:30 – 1:30 pm)

○ If requesting release by mail

Applications must be postmarked by Wednesday, June 1 – Thursday, June 30, 2016 to be accepted.

3. Information released

(1) Only the individual's results of the entrance examinations for the current academic year (2016) will be released.

(2) Individual results will be released in the form of scores or grades.
Relative rankings of examinees will not be released.

4. After receipt of requests for release, notices of results will be sent at the same time in late July 2016.

14. Handling of personal information

Under the Act on the Protection of Personal Information by Incorporated Administrative Agencies ("Personal Information Protection Act" hereinafter), the University will use personal information obtained during the process of selecting students for tasks related to the selection process and for other purposes, as described below.

1. Purposes of use

- (1) Personal information concerning successful applicants such as names and addresses will be used for tasks related to admission procedures.
- (2) Personal information such as names and addresses concerning persons who have completed admission procedures will be used following matriculation for tasks related to their studies, including management of student records and tasks related to health, such as medical examinations.
- (3) Personal information such as names and addresses concerning persons who have completed admission procedures will be used for tasks related to management of payments, such as collection of enrollment and tuition fees.
- (4) Personal information such as applicant assessments made during the selection process will be used for tasks related to support for studies, including waivers of enrollment fees and tuition fees in the first year and selection of students for scholarships.
- (5) Personal information such as applicant assessments made during the selection process will be used for tasks related to statistical processing, provision of information to prospective students, and surveys and research related to the selection process. In such cases, the personal information will be used in ways that render it impossible to identify individuals.

2. Provision of personal information to third parties

Apart from the cases set forth in Article 9 of the Personal Information Protection Act, personal information obtained by the University will not be used for other purposes or provided to third parties without the permission of the applicants themselves.

However, the minimum required information may be provided in the following cases:

- (1) Tasks involving the handling of personal information described in 1. (1) – (5) above may be entrusted to an external third party after concluding a contract with the third party concerning appropriate handling of personal information.

- (2) To facilitate operations related to acceptance decisions and additional acceptance decisions through the separate installment system in which national and public universities offer two opportunities to take entrance examinations, personal information related to matters such as acceptance and admission procedures (limited to names and examinee nos. for the National Center Test) may be provided to the National Center for University Entrance Examinations and any other national and public universities to which the applicant has applied.
- (3) Provision of information to parties outside the University in cases in which this would be in the interests of the person concerned
 - ① Musical Education Promotion Association (parents' association for the Faculty of Music supporting faculty education and research and student extracurricular activities)
 - ② Mori-no-kai (alumni association of the Faculty of Fine Arts)
 - ③ Dosei-kai (alumni association of the Faculty of Music)
 - ④ Tokyo University of the Arts Cooperative Association
