Admission Fee Deferral Request Form (Preliminary Application)

I would like to request that Tokyo University of the Arts defer my admission fee payment required for the admission process because I make a formal application for admission fee waiver/deferral for 2023. I shall not make any complaint regarding cancellation of my admission by the university, in case I didn't make such an application during the formal application period for admission fee waiver/ deferral.

Eligibility (Please choose one of the following reasons. You cannot file an application if none of them applies to you.)

- The person who has primary financial responsibility for the applicant has passed away within one year prior to admission.
- The applicant or the person with primary financial responsibility for the applicant has suffered damages from natural disasters such as storm or flood within one year prior to admission.
- The applicant is facing an economic hardship (To be eligible under this reason, the applicant must meet the university's academic achievement standards)
